CORRESPONDENCE, REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS

Chairperson Jeanette Remsen spoke in reference to the Blood Drive. She is waiting on receiving a list of donators from the Red Cross to call. The Pfeiffer Community Center has been reserved for that day.

The Commission spoke in reference to trips. The flyer for Surf Light's 'South Pacific' is out. The trip to Dutch Apple Theatre's 'Cats' is filled with 40 people. Jeanette is waiting on receiving information on the casino trip to see Frankie Avalon. She also said that when the members return for September's meeting, that they can discuss 2014 trips. Jeanette said that she doesn't expect the Seniors Commission budget to increase in 2014 and is personally fine with that, because she thinks that the Commission can work with it again by having 7 dinner-shows and make up the rest with casino trips. She asked the members how they felt about it and they agree that they can make it work.

Jeanette will contact the members later about the Blood Drive after she receives more info.

Mel notified the members that her membership term expires December 31, 2013 and will not be renewing her membership with the Seniors Commission for another 3-year term, due to other commitments.
