CORRESPONDENCE, REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS

Chairperson Jeanette Remsen does not yet know what the 2014 budget will be for the Seniors Commission, but does not believe there will be more than 2013's budget. She feels that the Commission will do just fine with the same budget; casino trips will again be filled-in between trips during the year.

The members discussed how much they enjoyed The Duprees trip, the show, the buffet, the slot play credit. January's trip will be at the Resorts for "The Kid Sings Swing" on January 13, 2014. Jeanette asked if the members had any trip suggestions for February and March. The members reviewed trip advertisements/fliers. They discussed taking a Delaware River Train Ride and pan mining possibly in April; Jeanette will speak with Marnie in reference to prices and dates. 'Moses' is booked for May. They discussed going to Peddler's Village for BINGO possibly in June. Jeanette mentioned the Frankie Avalon trip and spoke in reference to the prices with and without the buffet. They will book the show to include the buffet. Jeanette wants the members to come to the next meeting with their ideas/suggestions for trips for February and March. They discussed dates to see 'Drinking Habits' at Rainbow Dinner Theatre; possibly August or September. The members also discussed possibly seeing 'Busybody' at Hunterdon Hills Playhouse, maybe in March.

Mel O'Connell suggested changing the sign-in process that is done before each trip, to eliminate one of the forms. The members discussed the process with taking money, signing in, etc.; they will discuss further.
