Jeanette gave all the members trip fliers to review. She explained to the members what the Commission does, that they plan trips and the senior luncheon. Jeanette noted that a senior luncheon was not held in 2015, but would like to have one in 2016 for those who support the Commission's trips. She mentioned that in 2015, 150 different people attended the trips.

The Red Cross asked Jeanette if the Seniors Commission would like to host a blood drive in February. Due to short notice and other local places also hosting blood drives, it was cancelled and Jeanette said it would be better if held in August.

Jeanette noted that February's trip is booked for February 18th at Rainbow's Comedy Playhouse for 'Nana's Naughty Knickers'; March's trip is booked for March 15th at Tomasello Winery and the Casino; April's trip is booked for April 23rd at Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre for 'Menopause'; May's trip is booked at Sight & Sound for 'Samson'; June's trip is booked for June 29th at Caesar's Casino for 'My Mother is Italian, My Father's Jewish & I'm in Therapy'. Jeanette said she would like for them to take an overnight trip to Foxwood & Mohegan Sun on August 8th and 9th; she said that maybe they can pass out a form to people on the bus trips to see who would be interested. This trip would also be open to everyone; it would not be a Seniors Commission trip. September's trip is booked for September 13th at Pine Dinner Theater for 'Honkey Tonkey Angels'.

For the January trip to Careme's Restaurant at Academy of Culinary Arts at Atlantic Cape Community College on January 25th, there are 67 people going, including the 2 bus drivers. There are 14 people on a waiting list.

Jeanette mentioned that she needs help with the sign-in sheet and collecting money at the trips and would like each Commission member to take turns in helping.
