CORRESPONDENCE, REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS

Chairperson Jeanette Remsen said that she's waiting on a call back from the Academy of Culinary Arts of Atlantic Cape Community College to see when they can book a trip there for dinner at Careme's Restaurant. Corine Stark said she tried calling Stockton Performing Arts a few times about a trip there, but hasn't gotten through. Jeanette said that she doesn't think that it'll work out for a trip, because she doesn't think anyone would want to just go there for a show and that's it. Corine said she thought maybe also going to Tomasello or Renault Winery, near there. She said she'll let Jeanette know if she gets more information.

Jeanette mentioned that the Monroe Township Municipal Alliance Commission is hosting a Senior Gala. The luncheon will be held at The Estate at Monroe on Saturday, November 5, 2016.

The members discussed ideas for 2017 trips. Jeanette gave the members a flier for the Historic Stourbridge Line train rides. After some discussion, the members decided it would be too far for a trip; it's 3 hours away and the tour is 7 hours long. Corine mentioned the Richland - Tuckahoe Stations. They have the Santa Express. The members are interested in seeing 'My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish, I'm STILL In Therapy!' in June. The members also discussed seeing Frankie Avalon.

Jeanette told the members to come up with ideas for the next Seniors Meeting.

Jeanette noted that the Seniors Commission will be hosting a Red Cross Blood Drive again; probably in February 2017.
