CORRESPONDENCE, REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS

Chairperson Jeanette Remsen noted that the December trip to see Brenda Lee at Caesars Casino will be on December 1st. This is the same day as the scheduled Seniors Commission meeting of December. The members in attendance discussed rescheduling the December meeting for Thursday, December 8, 2016. Corine Stark made a motion to reschedule the Seniors Commission meeting of December from December 1, 2016 to December 8, 2016. The motion was seconded by Elaine Carrero; all in favor.

Jeanette handed out a packet that Elaine put together that consisted of fliers of shows and events from different places. One of the places it included was Mount Airy, which Jeanette said she and others felt is too far away. Corine said she had a suggestion of a place, which was Stockton Performing Arts Center. Jeanette said for Corine to provide her with info and she'll pass it along to all of the members. Corine also suggested Atlantic City Cruises for boat cruises, which does provide handicap access. Jeanette said that some of those who attend their senior trips won't go on boats; same as Spirit of Philadelphia, which she said some people didn't like. Jeanette mentioned that also in the packet was 'My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish, I'm In Therapy!'. Members also agreed that the show with Frankie Avalon would be a good idea. Jeanette said she'll call the Academy of Culinary Arts of Atlantic Cape Community College to see when they can book a trip there for dinner. She suggests booking a sit-down dinner, instead of the buffet, because food choices are better, more food is served and it's easier for seniors so that they don't have to walk around with dishes of food.

Jeanette noted that the October trip is booked for 'The Honky Tonk Angels' at Pines Dinner Theatre on October 18th, costing $52.00.
