E.) REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS

Cncl. Dilks thanked the Veterans, the VFW, the American Legion and the Commanders for all of their hard work with the Memorial Day Parade. He congratulated the Police Officers who were promoted this evening.

Cncl. Falcone attended the Holiday City Veterans Memorial Service on May 25, 2019, where they honored the Veterans by listening to real life stories of the Veterans' trials and tribulations. She walked in the Memorial Day Parade along with the Mayor and Council which ended at the Veterans' Memorial where a wreath laying ceremony and twenty-one gun salute was performed. She also visited a new business in town, Blue Cork Winery, which is located at the corner of Blue Bell Road and Corkery Lane. It is a complex of buildings that include the winery, a tasting room, a store and they are in the process of completing the banquet hall.

Cncl. Marino thanked the MUA for including the informational recycling flyer with their June billing statements. He attended the Memorial Day Parade, it was a beautiful day and a great turnout. He reported that the Township is moving forward in finalizing the land sale and looking to have it scheduled in the early fall. Cncl. Marino mentioned, if residents live adjacent to a Township owned property that is not buildable, it might be a good opportunity to bid on that property. The minimum bids will be priced reasonably, especially on those that are land-locked. He congratulated the Police Officers who were promoted earlier this evening.

E.) REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS (cont'd)

Cncl. Miller congratulated the Police Officers who were promoted this evening. He encouraged everyone to attend "Hidden in Plain Sight" which is being held on June 4th at 5:30pm at the Williamstown High School. He mentioned that with school letting out soon, there will be a lot more outside activity in the developments. He encouraged everyone to be extra cautious while driving, as there will be more children outside playing during the upcoming summer months.

Cncl. O'Reilly congratulated the Police Officers who were promoted this evening. He also attended the flag placement at the Gloucester County Veterans Memorial Cemetery with his family. It was quite an experience with people from all over the County attending to place flags on 3,000 plus graves. He thanked Freeholder Dan Christy, Freeholder Frank DiMarco and the Boy Scouts of America for leading the event. He also thanked Council for approving the Resolution regarding the emergency generator. This is a project that started before he began campaigning and it is something that is greatly needed. He thanked Cncl. Dilks for saving the Township a substantial amount of money with regards to this project by sourcing a generator that is well below what we were anticipating on spending. Cncl. O'Reilly attended the Environmental Protection Commission meeting last week and they discussed the lot clearing in new developments. The Commission would like to have an Ordinance revision that will help maintain some of the trees instead of just clear cutting the developments.

Cncl. Wolfe attended the Sports Advisory meeting on May 20th and reported they are working on cleaning up their handbook and Ordinance. On May 8th, he attended the Parks and Recreation meeting. The Commission is preparing for the Music Festival, which will be held on Saturday, June 1st. He encouraged everyone to attend. There will be rides for the children, food trucks, many vendors, three stages for live music and a fireworks display. He congratulated Chief DeHart and the other members of the Police Department who were promoted this evening. They are very deserving of their new positions and he is hopeful that the officers welcome the change and look for leadership and guidance from the new regime. He congratulated the retired Police Chief, John McKeown, and his command staff on their retirement. Cncl. Wolfe also congratulated the Hennessy family, along with the first recipients of the Robert A. Hennessy Citizen Award. This is a great award for the citizens who step up and do something positive within the community. Cncl. Wolfe attended the Memorial Day Parade, honoring the veterans who were present, along with the veterans who have paid the ultimate sacrifice. On Saturday, May 18th he attended the Shoprite Veterans Affairs Event where they honored four individuals. On behalf of the Mayor and Council, he and Cncl. Miller honored Shoprite for their commitment to the community. On May 25th, Cncl. Wolfe attended the Holiday City Memorial Day Event where they honored the veterans who live in their community.

Mayor DiLucia toured Blue Cork Winery along with Deputy Mayor DiLolle and was very impressed with everything the owner has done and their plans for the future. Last week, he attended the Gloucester County Mayor's Meeting, where they were honoring their Municipal Clerks, with Deputy Mayor DiLolle and Deputy Municipal Clerk Jennifer Harbison. The Mayor enjoys attending these meetings, he is able to talk to the other Mayors and exchange ideas on how things are done in their towns especially with regards to bringing in businesses. He attended the Memorial Day Parade, which was a well-attended event. Mayor DiLucia thanked Mrs. DeFelice for the amazing job she did in making the wreaths for the ceremony. He was flattered to have been presented a plaque at the Holiday City Memorial Day event. The Mayor wished Chief DeHart and Assistant Chief Dailey lots of luck in their new assignments. During the Captain interviews, he requested more bike and foot patrol on Main Street and the trouble hot spots. Mayor DiLucia wished Chief McKeown the best of luck in his retirement.

Deputy Mayor DiLolle attended the Blue Prayer Service that was celebrated at St. Mary's Church, which was a very nice affair that honored the local and state Police, Fire companies and EMS. He also attended the Holiday City Memorial Day event, which was a very moving ceremony honoring the veterans who live in their community. Deputy Mayor DiLolle attended the Memorial Day Parade and said it is great to see the people of Monroe Township participating in the Township events.

Director of Public Works, Nicholas Mercado thanked Council for the approval of the Resolution for the emergency generator. Regarding the Road Program, Ireland Terrace and Forest Drive Phase II have been completed. By the end of next week, Avery Drive and South Shore Drive Phase II should be completed. Mr. Mercado reported that a Public Works Tent will be set up at the Music Festival.

Director of Real Estate, Ms. Matese reported that she is working with Cncl. Marino and Solicitor Trimble on the planning of the land sale, which will be scheduled later this year.

Cncl. Pres. Garbowski attended the Memorial Day Parade and Celebration at the monument. He appreciated the large turnout of residents supporting our veterans. This evening, a Resolution was authorized for the expenditures of monies for the delayed light/left hand turn lane at Corkery Lane. He will be meeting with Senator Madden's office to help keep the project moving along. He also reported that the Library will be starting their summer program shortly. Cncl. Pres. Garbowski wished Chief Dehart, and the Police Officers who were promoted this evening, the best of luck.

F.) GENERAL PUBLIC DISCUSSION

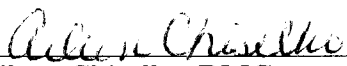

Cncl. Wolfe made a motion to open the General Public Discussion. The motion was seconded by Cncl. Miller and unanimously approved by all members of Council in attendance.

With no one wishing to speak, Cncl. Wolfe made a motion to close the General Public Discussion. The motion was seconded by Cncl. Miller and unanimously approved by all members of Council.

G.) ADJOURNMENT

With nothing further to discuss, Cncl. Marino made a motion to adjourn the Regular Council Meeting of May 28, 2019. The motion was seconded by Cncl. Miller and unanimously approved by all members of Council.

Respectfully submitted,

Aileen Chiselko, RMC
