CORRESPONDENCE, REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS

- Glassboro Senior Center visit

Jim & Brandee visited the Glassboro Senior Center. They learned that they distribute a calendar of events along with fliers and information about upcoming trips. One thing they liked was that they have a refund policy. Their Senior Center has designated rooms for events, such as exercising, arts & crafts, playing cards and a lunch room.

It was discussed that we should implement a refund policy as well. Brandee has ordered receipt books, so that when a resident pays for a trip they can receive a copy and the Commission will keep a copy. The Commission discussed allowing non-residents to attend the trip, but they will not be receiving the discount that is applied with the budget money. With the food pantry in the Pfeiffer Center being moved, there is a possibility that we can host activities in designated spaces as well.

- Bus companies

The Commission is looking at a few bus companies to see what trips they offer. Companies that were discussed were C&B and Safety Bus Tours. The Commission is interested in an overnight trip in the future.

CORRESPONDENCE, REPORTS AND OTHER MATTERS (cont'd)

- March 18th trip

A Township bus will be available for use, picking up from the Pfeiffer Center and transporting to the restaurant. The dinner will be $25 per attendee.
